Our mission

Attempting to secure a job in the broadcasting industry can be daunting and intimidating. That is why Lockwood Broadcasting created the LBG Career Center.

Our group is the perfect size to help people interested in broadcasting by giving give them direction and information about a career with our group or other broadcast station(s).

Our goal is to reach out and facilitate the entry of qualified candidates into our staff or the broadcast field.

Services

The LBG Career Center will provide (upon request):

Listings and job descriptions of open positions at LBG stations

Contact information for LBG Department Heads who are seeking to fill positions

Information on industry web pages that list open positions

Information on potential internships with LBG stations and state broadcast associations

Speakers to address classes or groups interested in a broadcast career.

The services of the Career Center are open to everyone. Simply call the Corporate EEO Coordinator and you will be given specific information for an LBG station, manager, and department. National broadcast industry resources are also available.
